

Product Description

Cervical brushes are designed to collect cervical exfoliated cell, and they have been used for gynecological clinical diagnostics, the "tower" tip is mainly used for HPV screening. MandeLab has developed the cervical brushes which exceed the industry standard according to the ergonomic design. The material of the tip is flexible and harmless, thus it would provide safe and comfortable sampling method. Cervical brushes collect more samples and ensure that sufficient samples can be released into the transport medium.

Product Specification & Picture

Item No.	Dimensions of Epoxy tip			Dimensions of PP stick
	Length	Width 1	Width 2	Diameter	Breakpoint	Total length
MS-CBT002	22 mm	6.0 mm	N/A	3.0 mm	N/A	190mm

